Eighty Guests Present At Banquet Honor Dr. Swift School Graduates

A banquet in honor of the 1957 graduating class was held in Dr. Swift school, Lac la Biche, on the evening of May 16.

A turkey dinner was served to eighty guests, including the graduands, their parents, the school staff, and local educational officials. All catering service was performed by the Grade XI students and their mothers.

Following is a list of the graduating students and their home addresses: Grace Grandish, Hylo; Signe Hogetveit, Rich Lake; Tillie Koerner, Lac la Biche; William Kuncio, Lac la Biche; Albert Langevin, Lac la Biche; Leopold Langevin, Lac la Biche; Roger Langevin, Lac la Biche; Lorina Lefebvre, Venice; Sherill Lozinski, Hylo; Carl Lukasik, Caslan; Thomas Maccagno, Lac la Biche; Paul Ponich, Wandering River; Natalka Salahub, Craigend; Alice Sorochan, Lac la Biche; Alex Horosnko, Noral.

An enjoyable program was presented. Russell Giblak, vice-president of the students' union, acted as master of ceremonies, and capably directed proceedings. A toast to graduands (whose ranks he hopes to join next year) was proposed by Walter Tichonuk, and responded to by Sherill Lozinski. In acknowledging the gratitude to the staff expressed by Paul Ponich in his toast to the teachers, vice-principal Mr. H. Senetza gave high praise to the students who have been so conscientious and industrious. Mrs. M. Maccagno responded charmingly to the tributes paid to parents by Albert Langevin. A piano solo by Grace Grandish provided a pleasing interlude.

With a masterful command of language, valedictorian Carl Lukasik expressed some of the buoyant hopes and aspirations of youth.

Especially entertaining to the audience were the class history by Tommy Maccagno and Alice Sorochan, and the class prophecy by Roger Langevin and Signe Hogetveit. Unsuspected talent was revealed when William Kuncio delivered his own composition, a poem commemorating the great occasion at hand.

In his principal's message, Mr. McMillan drew attentnon to great natural resources, but pointed out that Canada's greatest resource is its people. Only as a result of their education will the fullest development and wisest use of our natural riches be made.

In his address as superintendent Mr. Filipchuk noted the great emphasis on education, particularly technical, in Iron Curtain countries. He urged the graduands to take up the challenge of maintaining and improving the status of our own country through educational endeavor.

As guest speaker, Mr. Lore spoke of the qualities and traits of character which are essential to success, and discussed some practical suggestions for getting properly started in any job or profession.

Ceremonies were concluded at the Memorial hall with a grand march, followed by the presentation of a scroll to each graduand by Mr. McMillan. Each boy received a set of cuff links and tie bar, and each girl a locket, from Russell Giblak, as a farewell gift from the students' union.

Attend Conference In Calgary

M. W. Patterson, manager of the local Robinson Store, and Mrs. Patterson recently returned from Calgary where they attended the annual merchandise conference conducted by Robinson, Little and Co. Ltd., for their authorized dealers.

Attendance of well over 200 people included Robinson representatives from British Columbia, Alberta and Saskatchewan. Highlights of the meeting included a general review of the results for the year 1956, merchandising and promotional plans for 1957, as well as a review of merchandise displays, including many hundreds of new items in addition to the basic lines of dry goods, notions and clothing for the entire family.

A Double Dose

They say trouble comes in bunches, and two little boys of the town recently thought they had their share and more Barry Rizzoli, son of Mr. and Mr. Ben Rizzoli and Dougie Lett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lett had both measles and mumps at the same time. Barry had a severe case of both diseases, making him a pretty sick laddie for a few days.

Fire Brigade's Alertness Proven

The Town fire brigade unwittingly put on a good demonstration of quick response to the fire alarm last Tuesday evening when deputy fire commissioner M. J. Bedard paid a routine visit to the town.

A pile of rubbish about three and a half blocks from the fire hall was lighted and burning well when the alarm was 'phoned to the telephone operator and the test began. Five seconds after the call went in the alarm sounded; the first fireman appeared at the hall within 20 seconds; the fire truck rolled out of the station fully manned at 55 seconds and water was being applied to the fire in one minute and 58 seconds.

The truck came out of the station slowly and carefully, and there was no sign of confusion. The deputy commissioner noted that the driver not only wanted to reach the fire quickly, but with his equipment all in one piece. When the engine arrived at the fire every man knew his business and before leaving the scene every spark was extinguished. Instead of each member wandering away after the fire was out, all 14 men who answered the alarm returned to the fire hall and did not hesitate until the fire engine was serviced and ready to respond to another alarm.

As the firemen were not aware until afterwards that this was a test to try out their proficiency. Mr. Bedard was enthusiastic in his praise for the brigade. When one fireman who arrived late was questioned about not being on time, he explained that he had been baby-sitting and had to find another sitter before he could get away. He was about five minutes later than the others.

The deputy commissioner expressed his pleasure with the fine team spirit of the men as well as with the unmistakable evidence of regular practice.

$180,000,000 FOR GOVERNMENT

ROSY FUTURE FOR ALBERTA --- PREDICTS 30,000 OIL JOBS

CALGARY — "By 1965 Alberta will be the most important and biggest gas producing area on the continent," predicted A. G. Bailey, vice-president and general manager of Bailey Selburn Oil and Gas Ltd., and a director of Alberta Gas Trunk Line, here last week.

Mr. Bailey added that in another eight years revenue by way of royalties, bonuses, etc., to the Alberta government will be $180,000,000 or over 50 per cent of the government's gross income.

"You, as Albertans, have a great interest in natural gas as a mineral resource," he said. This interest had been acquired because the government owned more than 80 per cent of potential gas lands.

"You are really unique shareholders in one of the fastest growing and most profitable "companies" in the world," said Mr. Bailey. "Your company makes available to its shareholders the transportation of all gas within the province."

The Trunk Line system will have to be greatly expanded to meet all demands which are now foreseeable. This should be an excellent investment for its shareholders, and an investment which should be retained in the hands of Albertans, he said.

Mr. Bailey said he felt that the picture was indeed 'rosy' for Albertans. "I feel quite confident that Alberta's oil expansion within the next ten years will create 30,000 new jobs," he concluded.

Pupils Make Edmonton Tour

The Junior high school pupils of Darwell centralized school, accompanied by their teachers, Mrs. Dion and Mrs. Peck, and Mr. and Mrs. L. Macdonald, made a tour of Edmonton by school bus, on May 16.

They visited the Northern Alberta auditorium, the parliament buildings, G.W.G. and the Coca-Cola plant.

"We enjoyed every minute of it and never dreamed that a trip like this could be so interesting," remarked one of the pupils, when asked whether or not he had enjoyed himself. Everyone agreed.

Already other cabins are being erected. Tent space is still available. Further announcemments of the opening of the beach and cabins will be made.

MR. AND MRS. JAY ARTHUR YEOMANS who were united in marriage by Rev. Stuart Munro in Lac la Biche United church.

Rose Stefanyk, Jay Yeomans, Wed In Lac La Biche Ceremony

The Lac la Biche United church was the scene of a pretty wedding when Rev. Stuart Munro united in marriage, Miss Rose Josephine Stefanyk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Stefanyk of Lac la Biche, and Mr. Jay Arthur Yeomans, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Yeomans of Pickardville.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride made a charming picture in a floor-length gown of white lace and net over taffeta, featured with lily-point sleeves and a lace bolero. Her floor-length veil was held in place by a tiara of seed pearls and sequins. Her jewelry was pearl and rhinestone earrings and brooch, a gift of the groom. She carried a lovely cascade bouquet of red roses.

As maid-of-honor, Miss Vienna Stefanyk, sister of the bride, chose a ballerina length gown of pink net over satin with a pink net head dress. Her corsage was of pink roses.

The bridesmaids, Miss Carol Yeomans, sister of the groom, and Miss Lorraine Woychuk, wore identical gowns of nylon taffeta in shades of pink and blue, respectively. Their bouquets were of mixed flowers.

Ernie Pendroff was best man and Charles Yeoman's brother of the groom, and Mr. Arnold Schmod of Westlock ushered the guests to their seats. Mrs. M. A. Lett presided at the organ.

Following the ceremony, a reception for some 110 guests was held in the Memorial hall,which was decorated in spring colors.

To receive her guests, the bride's mother, Mrs. Stefanyk, chose an afternoon dress of grey silk taffeta, with white accessories and a corsage of carnations. The groom's mother was dressed in a blue lace frock with white and yellow accessories. Her corsage was also of carnations.

The bride's table was laid in white linen centred with a three-tiered wedding cake. Rev. S. Munro proposed the toast to the bride to which the groom ably responded. In the evening a well attended dance was held in the hall, the music being supplied by Stuparik's orchestra.

The couple will make their home in Drayton Valley where Mr. Yeomans is employed with an oil company. Out-of town guests included Mrs. Jennie Onischuk, Edmonton, maternal grandmother of the bride; Mrs. J. Langlund, Vancouver; Mr. and Mrs. Otto Mittelstadt, Sion; Mr. and Mrs. August Borle, Rich Valley; Mr. and Mrs. Maxine Seibert, Mr. and Mrs. M. Yurke, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McMillan, Pickardville; Mr. and Mrs. Leo O'Brian, Vimy; Kenneth Morrison and Allistair Squair, Pickardville; Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Clark and Stanley, Warspite; Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Squair, Pickardville; Mr. and Mrs. Schmode, Westlock.

Conservative Leader Recommends Appointment Indian To Senate

CALGARY (BUP) — Progressive Conservative leader John Diefenbaker told a news conference in Calgary that there should be an immediate appointment of a member of the Indian race to the Canadian senate to represent the Indians.

Diefenbaker is on a lightning tour of southern Alberta constituencies to speak in support of Conservative candidates.

The Tory leader said that over the years he advocated the Indian be represented in parliament. He pointed out the Indian was not concentrated enough in any constituency to elect a member and the logical move would be to make a senate appointment. At the present they (the Indians) have no representation in the Canadian Parliament.

Terming some of the actions of the Indian Affairs Department "a callous disregard," the Conservative leader declared the section of the Indian Act under which the right to ban membership can be challenged were unconstitutional proceedings. They should not apply to Indians accepted in treaty before a certain date, and that date should not be before the act came into force in 1951.

Other points mentioned by Diefenbaker included a committee similar to the Hoover committee in the United States should be set up and make recommendations on government expenditures.

The tight money policy of the government in respect to housing has not helped to quell the fire of inflation but has had a detrimental effect on both builders and lumber suppliers.

The government has consistently failed to act in one field, that is —cut its unnecessary large expenditures and reduce taxes.

Tight money policy has dealt "A mortal blow" to small industry and the Conservative government would enact legislation similar to that in the United States which would assist small business.

The present government has picked the pockets of the Canadian people to the tune of $500,000,000 last year by overtaxation and is taking more this year.

Recent pension increases were totally unjust and inadequate.

The fact the estimate committee in parliament has no power to call witnesses means a bulldog has been set up to examine the treasury and then the government muzzles it.

Diefenbaker travelled by motor cavalcade to Red Deer where he spoke at the Memorial Centre on behalf of Conservative candidate Harris Rogers.

Fishing Good At Owl River

Next weekend a party of ardent Isaac Walton disciples will converge on the Lac la Biche area to sample the pickerel run on Owl River and possibly some of the adjacent lakes, if the ice is clear.

The party will be made up of men from First Baptist church in Edmonton, and they are the forerunners of many others who are expected to sample the delights of good angling in the Lac la Biche territory this summer.

A party of government photographers is also expected in the district, seeking motion pictures of the annual run.

Order Inquest Into Highway Death

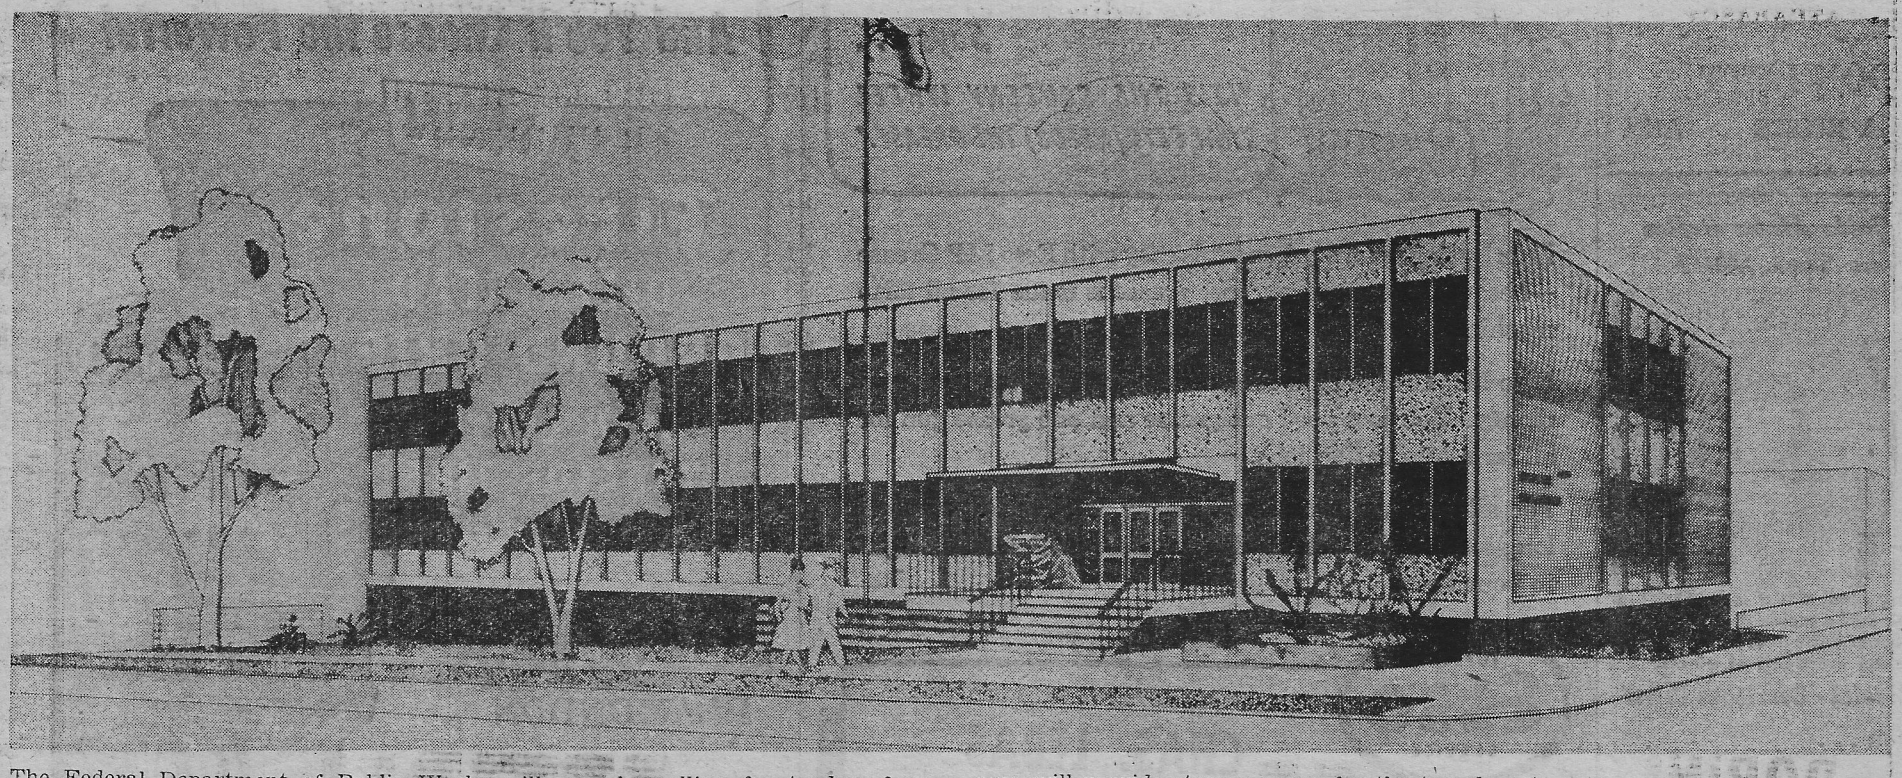
PINCHER CREEK (BUP) — Magistrate W. McLeod of Pincher Creek, has ordered an inquest into the death of William Durocher, age 30, of St. Albert, who was killed Friday night in a highway mishap.

Durocher was the driver of a truck carrying oil equipment to a new well site in southern Alberta when the left front axle of the vehicle broke. The truck plunged into the ditch, crushing William and injuring his brother Fred. Police are still investigating the accident which occurred near Pincher Creek.

This was the province's first traffic fatality of the long weekend.

If you really want to know what a fellow thinks of himself, you ought to hear him talk to a group of strangers about 500 miles from home.

NEW DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS FEDERAL BUILDING



The Federal Department of Public Works will soon be calling for tenders for construction of a new building to be erected in Edmonton. It will be erected on the south-east corner of 100th Avenue and 103rd Street and is intended to provide accommodation for Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation and the District Offices of the Department of Public Works.

The building will measure 64 feet by 150 feet with two full storeys above grade plus a basement and sub-basement. Provision in the structural and general design has been made so that two additional storeys can be added whenever required.

Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation will occupy the entire first floor and the Department of Public Works will take over the second floor. The basement area will provide storage space for the two departments.

The new structure will be framed in reinforced concrete with outside wall finishes in brick, stone and pre-cast concrete panels faced with special terrazzo finishes. The windows will be framed in hollow aluminum sections and double-glazed.

At the front entrance, a marble panel will serve as a background for the cast aluminum Canadian Coat-of-arms. To the right of the entrance doors there will be display space for the showing of models and exhibits by the Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation. A parking area will be provided at the rear of the building.

Plans and specfiications were prepared for the Department of Public Works by the architectural firm of McKernan and Bouey of Edmonton.

It's here! Your 4-H Club Achievement Day. Each spring and fall before the 4-H winter and summer projects fold up for the season the clubs put on an achievement day. This generally consists of a display of their work, a program of entertainment, reports on their activities and finishing for the parents and members of the community to see just what 4-H has done for its members besides offering the leaders and district home economist a chance to choose an outstanding club girl as an efficiency winner. This efficiency award is based on the member's club record—co-operation, attendance, contribution to the success of the club as well as the improvement and progress of the individual—personality, ability to take responsiblity and ability to do the projects. The efficiency winner steps out of her community, province and country and takes her place in a demoncratic society.

A 4-H club cannot function successfully without the interest and support of parents and community. It is your duty and privilege to pledge your support. And presently there is no better way than attending their Achievement Day program.

There are various degrees of friends. occasionally even a true one.

Nugent Protests One-Man Poll

EDMONTON (BUP — Terry Nugent, Progressive Conservative candidate for Edmonton-Strathcona in next month's federal election, wrote a letter to the constituency's returning officer, J. L. Chapman with reference to a one-man polling station.

Nugent noted poll number 227 has only one voter, Sandy MacTaggart, listed.

"Not only is his right to cast a secret ballot taken away but he (MacTaggart) has lost all chance of anonymity if he happens to be one of those people who do not cast ballots on June 10."

The young Tory lawyer wrote there were a few less important considerations in having a one name polling list such as the cost to the government or having a paid pair of enumerators, a revising officer and Poll clerk getting paid for taking care of that poll and a deputy returning officer and poll clerk getting paid for looking after the same.

"I have a sporting suggestion which I am sure my opponents will go along with," Nugent added. Let's leave that ballot box unopened and uncounted unless there is a tie for first place. This will preserve this voters secrecy of ballot and make his vote newsworthy enough that he may feel he has gained in notoriety what he has lost by way of privilege."

DISTRICT AGRICULTURIST NOTES

By J. S. LORE

Weeds in a crop make their presence felt in various ways. They are normally thought of as reducing yields of grain crops by competing for moisture and plant food—but there is another way by which they cause losses. This is from dockage at harvest time, and although often just taken for granted, the losses are staggering. These losses are almost entirely made up of weed seeds which have been growing along with the crop.

Much has been written about both cultural and chemical methods of weed control. At the Canada Department of Agriculture Swift Current Experimental Farm it has been found that the practice of killing a crop of annual weeds before seeding not only gives a substantial increase in yield, but also greatly reduces the dockage of foreign material found in the grain.

When seeding was done before the weeds had germinated and were thus not killed by pre-seeding tillage, dockage on unsprayed wheat fields in 1956 ran between 20 and 25 per cent. This meant that when the farmer checked his yield at the combine as a 30-bushel crop, he actually had only a 24-bushel yield of wheat with six bushels of weed seeds. On the other hand, when seeding was delayed to allow the weed seeds to germinate and be destroyed by pre-seeding tillage, the dockage was only about one or two per cent. In this case, a 40-bushel crop at the combine was, for all practical purposes a 40-bushel crop of wheat.

Don't be too anxious to seed the grain crop if weeds are troublesome. It is better to grow out a crop of weeds first and then eliminate them before seeding the cash crop. Remember, the elevator agent only buys grain—not weeds.
